Class History

In September of 1940 Miss Lucille McMullin was greeted with 15 shining faces. They were Kenneth Guthrie, Robert Hora, Duane Jurgensen, Bernard Knight, Gerald Oellsich, Carlene Smith, James Shankland, Alton Sproston, Roxanna Ruhl, Audrey Topping, Ruth Arlene Vernon, Phyllis Walderbach, Betty Kula, Larry Jones, and Kenneth Findley. During the year we lost Bernard Knight, and Alton Sproston, who moved away and Audrey Topping because of illness.

Shortly after we entered second grade we lost Gerald Oellsich and Betty Kula, but regained Alton Sproston so at the end of the year our class totaled 9, our teacher for second grade was Miss Poshobradsky.

In third grade our teacher was Ethel Johnson and our number increased to 12 as we gained Betty McCammet, Marcella Nisson, and Clifford Wood.

Frances Windsor Smith guided 11 students through 4th grade as we lost Betty McCammet.

Our teacher for 5th grade was Mrs. Dorthy Guthrie. During the year we lost Marcella Nisson, Larry Jones, Kenneth Findley, Darlene Smith, Phyllis Walderbach, and Clifford Wood. We were joined by Ernest and Leland Thomas, so at the end of the year we were seven strong. The class included Kenneth Guthrie, Robert Hora, Leland Thomas, Ernest Thomas, Duane Jurgensen, Ruth Vernon, and Roxanna Ruhl.

During the sixth grade we gained Robert Houstman but lost Kenneth Guthrie. Our teacher was Mrs. Barger.

In seventh grade we were joined by Allen Howard Klinetop. Our teacher was Mrs. Ireland.

Janet Greenawald and Richard Miller were the new comers. In eighth grade Howard Klinetop moved away. Our teacher was Mrs. Ireland.

During our Freshman year we added Larry Williams and Roy Pearson. Leland Thomas left us. Our teachers were Mr. Greenawald and Mrs. Peck.

In our Sophomore year we added Pierre Gombert and lost Roy Pearson and Ernest Thomas. The faculty was Mr. Greenawald, Mr. Ridout and Miss Ament.

Our Junior class consisted of Ruth Vernon, Roxanna Ruhl, Janet Greenawald, Larry Williams, Robert Hora, and Duane Jurgensen. The faculty remained the same.

As we entered the last lap of our high school, we lost Larry Williams and gained Lucille Yarrington. Our teachers were Mr. Greenawald, Mr. Ridout, and Mrs. Russell.

Class Will

We, the class of 1952 of Morley Consolidated High School, of the County of Jones, and the State of Iowa, being of sound mind and body after four strenuous years, do hereby revoke all former wills, bequests and devices of form heretofore made by us.

Ruthie Vernon wills her ability to drive "Chevie" cars, to Kathy Hay, so she can drive "Chevie trucks".

Roxy Ruhl wills her ability to think up "cages" nick-names, to Shirley Hansen. Let's see you make up as good nick-names as Roxy can, Shirley.

Duane Jurgensen wills his ability to play "captain of his ship" to Kenny Brokaw. Now Kenny, let's make plenty of noise.

To Laurence Connor, Janet Greenawald wills her ability to wink at a certain Freshman.

Bob Hora wills his ability to sell greeting cards and pan-cake supper tickets at the same time, to Kenny Findley. Now Ken let's make a lot of money for the class.

To Janet Siver, Roxy Ruhl wills her ability to read Government. Now Janet the word is "spiteful" not spitful"!

Bob Hora and Duane Jurgensen will their ability to "liven up" play practices, to Dale Findley and Keith Vernon. Now Dale and Keith, don't act up too much!

Ruthie Vernon wills her ability to hide in home economics cupboards, to Charleen Holdren, to use next year when hiding form the home economics teacher.

To Clara Pillard, Janet Greenawald wills her boldness about asking what television station is on! Now Clara don't be afraid to ask.

Janet Greenawald and Roxy Ruhl will their ability to go to church on Wednesday night, to Junior Gerdes and Lonnie Hindrichsen.

The Senior Class wills their ability to get along together so well, to the other high school classes.

To the Junior class the Seniors will their ability to have such interesting class meetings. Let's have a few good jokes! No feet on the desks, please!!

Roxy Ruhl wills to Carol Eldred her "back-scratcher", so she won't have to borrow someone elses fingernails.

The Senior class wills to Rosie Austin a great big garden, so Rosie won't have to put it in when she's so busy with her school work.

Ruth Vernon wills to Evelyn Findley her ability to keep "shifts" from rattling in cars. Now Eve, hold it tight, so it won't make a bit of noise.

The Senior class wills to Mr. Ridout an electric suit, that will keep him warm during cold baseball games. Also a new model tractor, so he won't have to turn his head, and as a result suffer with a stiff neck.

To Mrs. Russell the Seniors will some new stage properties, so she won't have to worry about furniture for her plays.

To Mr. Greenawald the seniors will a secretary, so he won't have to do all of his own typing and correspondence.

Last but not least, the Seniors will to Gene Smith, our janitor the ability to be "on the job", the morning after, the night before.

We leave this will with Roxy Ruhl, to be guarded closely by their horse --, I mean dog, Dobie.

Class Prophecy

May 12, 1957, started out as a usual day. When I got back from lunch I noticed that the lawyer I worked for, Mr. Jones, had an appointment at 1:30 with a Mr. Jurgensen. That name sounded familiar. Just then in walked Mr. Jurgensen and I instantly recognized him. "Why, Jurg", I said, "what are you doing here?" He said "Hi", and then told me his story. You remember all the letters Jurg got in his Senior year about a rug cleaning machine. It seems Jurg really bought one and had quite a business. Last week though, his machine broke and ruined one of his clients rugs and she was suing him.

That afternoon Mr. Jones became ill and was taken to the hospital. He had some important letters he wanted to dictate so I went over to the hospital to take them. Whom should I meet when I first walked in the door but Janet Greenawald, or maybe I should say Doctor Greenawald. She agreed to meet me at dinner that night to reminis old times. When we met that night Janet told me that she had liked nursing so well she decided to go further with her schooling and become a doctor. She still had three years of school left and was just an assistant to another doctor right now.

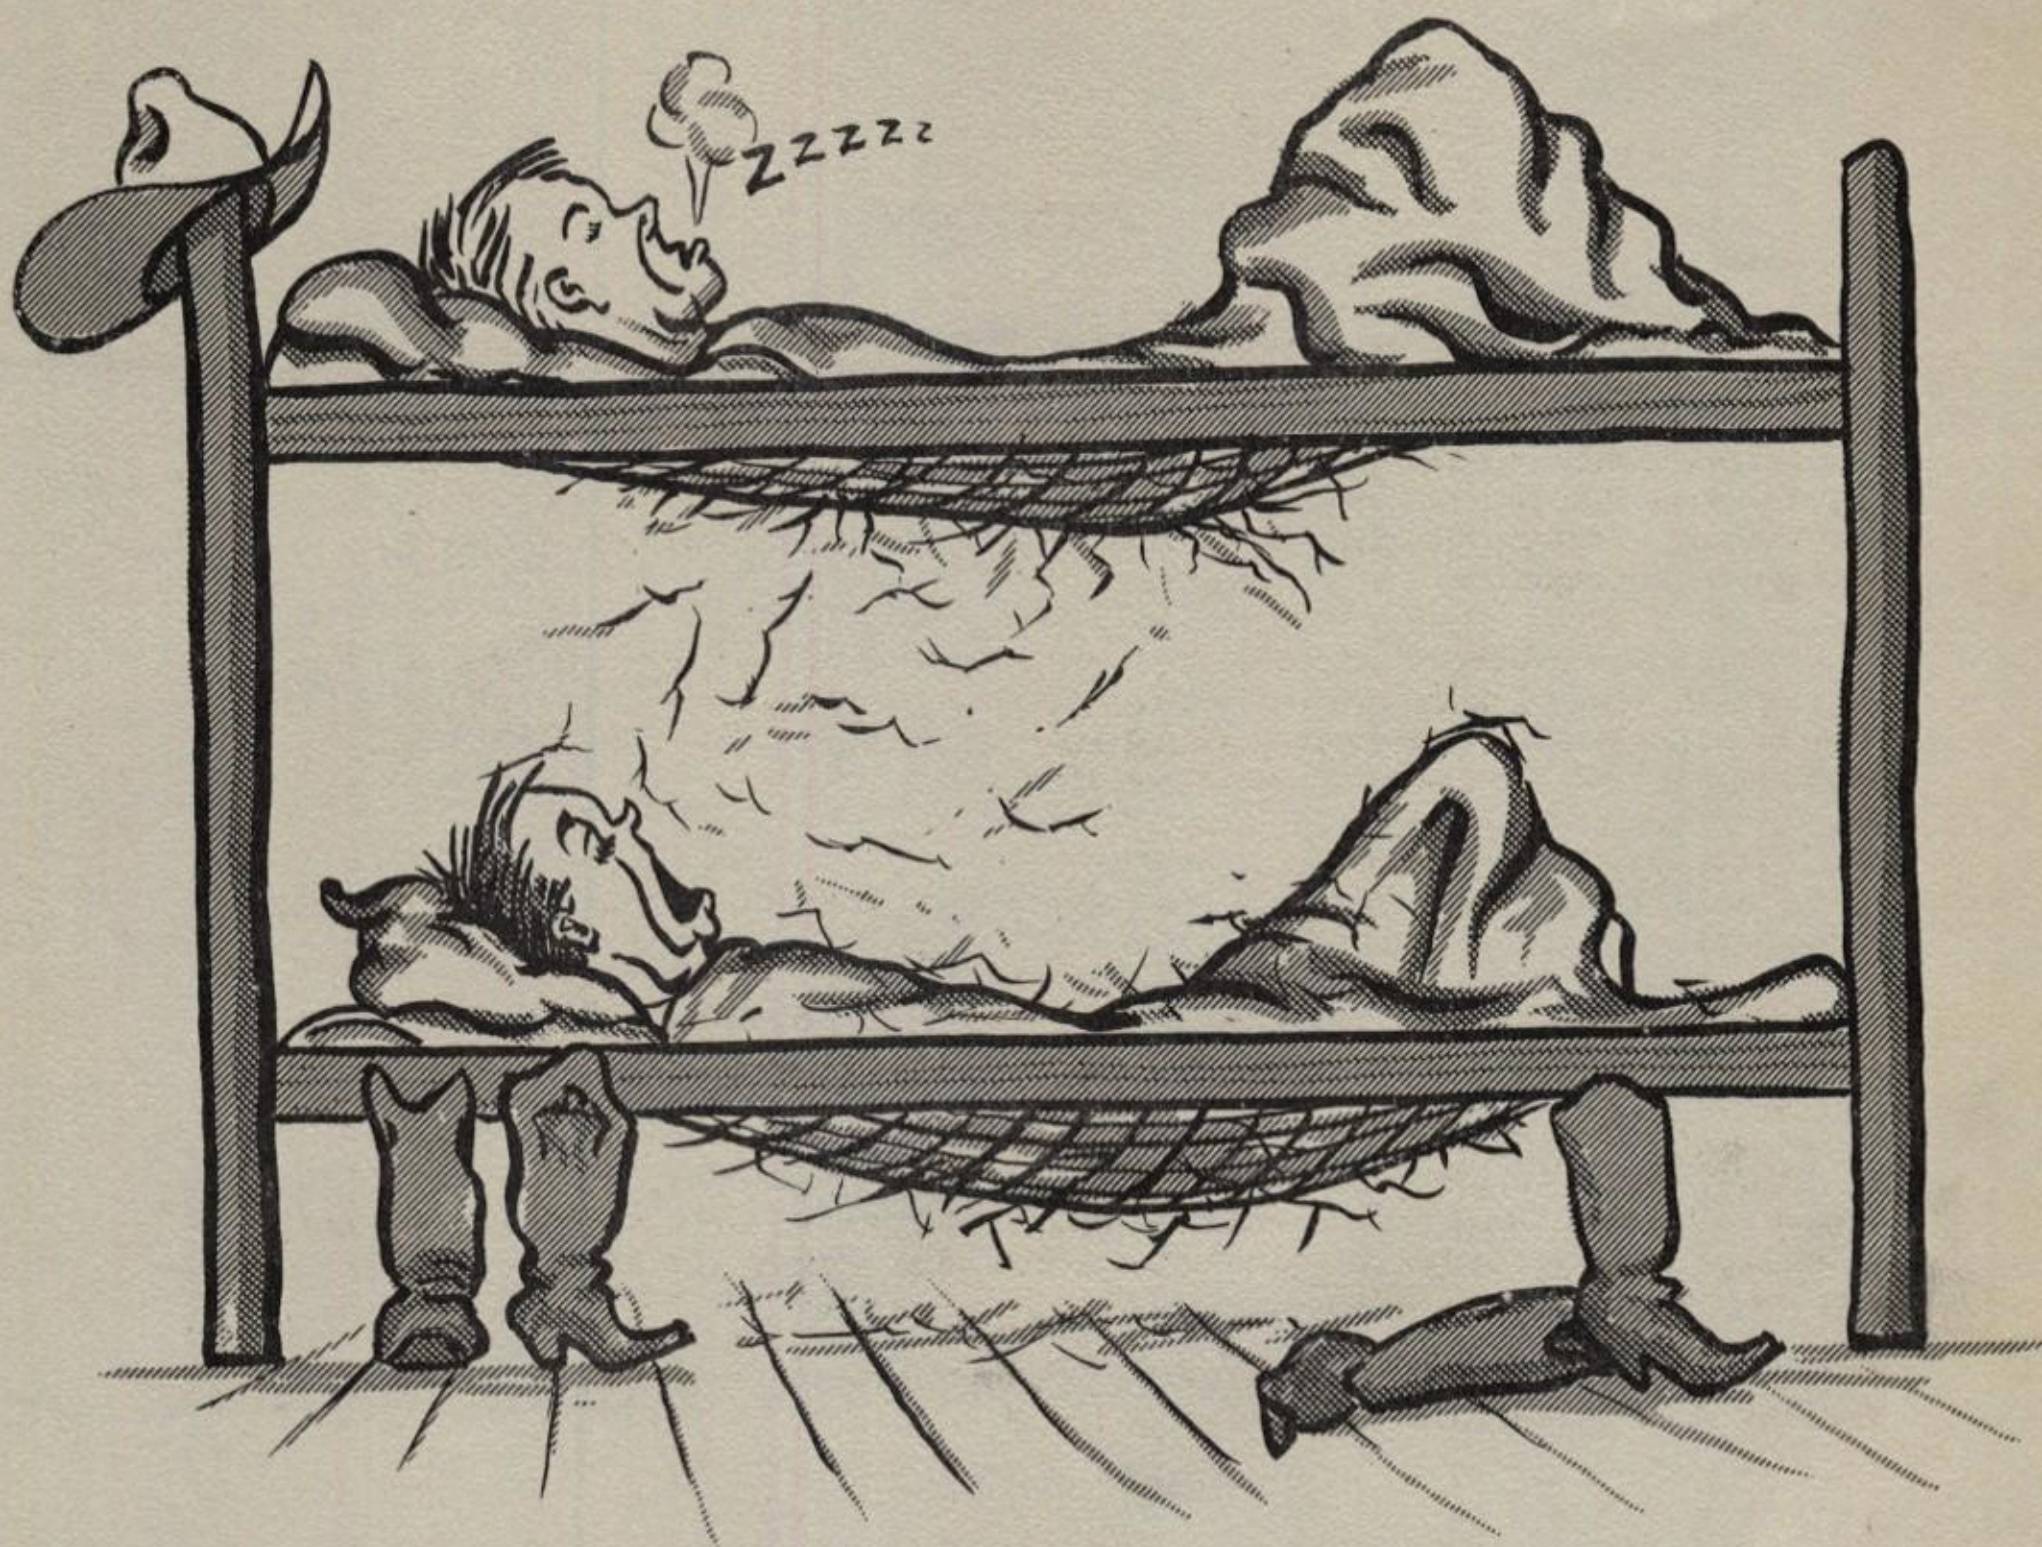

When I ask her where Ruth Vernon was, Janet replied, "Why didn't you know that Ruth got married?" "No," I said, "who to?" "She married the Superintendent of the Morley High School, Larry Williams, who was in school with us up to our Junior year. Ruth is teaching the primary, first and second grades there. "

"What are your plans for the future Janet"? I asked, "Do you plan on marriage soon"? "No," said Janet, "I have decided to make the medical profession my career and I'm not going to get married for ten or fifteen years at least.

"What is Lucille Yarrington doing"? I asked. "Well the school has grown so at Morley that Lucille was hired as office girl. She files, takes dictation and does other odd jobs around the school". replied Janet.

"Do you know what Bob Hora is doing"? Janet asked me. "Yes," I answered, "Bob was always quite speedy in shorthand and when he got out of school he took more training and is now a court reporter at the courthouse. I see him quite often as I go to the courthouse during Mr. Jones trials and take notes.

Janet and I continued talking about school days until the manager of the restaurant finally asked us if we wouldn't leave as they would like to close.

School Activities

First activity of the year was Initiation. Sophomores sponsored an Initiation dance honoring the Freshman Class who joined our high school this fall.

A magazine campaign was sponsored by the Morley School on September 21, 1951. The Junior High and High School took part and competed against each other. $305.04 was taken in with the school receiving $109.72. Coleen Hay was high salesman with $47.50 and Shirley Hansen ran a close second with $47.00.

In October the Seniors journeyed to Cedar Rapids where they proceeded to turn on the char m and break the cameras. They spent the day shopping and attended a movie.

The Juniors presented "Margie and the Wolf Man" October 24. A capacity crowd filled the auditorium and everyone enjoyed it.

The basketball season was opened October 26 with McVile. A pancake supper was held before the game with Aunt Jemima frying the pancakes.

A Thanksgiving Dance was sponsored by the Seniors during the Thanksgiving Vacation. The day before the Thanksgiving Vacation the grade children gave an assembly program under the direction of Mrs. Russell.

At Christmas time the grade children gave an assembly program under the direction of Mrs. Russell. The Mixed Chorus sang and a skating dance was performed by the Junior High.
